navigating compliance in a global marketplace

Successfully navigating the increasingly complex landscape of today's international marketplace requires a sophisticated approach to international taxation—one which aligns international tax decisions with corporate strategy. For multinational companies, having a trusted international tax advisor is more important than ever.

The DHG International team is comprised of international tax professionals who are actively involved in more than 50 countries, providing a wide range of services including assurance, tax and advisory.

International Tax Services

We are equipped to help you capitalize on the growing opportunity that aligns with the rapid increase in corporate globalization. Our services encompass outbound and inbound planning services, as well as a complete suite of international compliance and reporting services.

Our International Alliance

DHG's membership in the Praxity alliance of independent firms gives us worldwide reach when providing international tax services. Our team participates in conferences and seminars around the world and develops relationships within the Praxity alliance. The strength of these relationships results in seamless cross border service.
